Andrea Hughes

After dinner Chairperson Sandra introduced our guest speaker for the night, Andrea Hughes. Andrea was one of the GSE (Group Study team) from Brazil who visited SA clubs for 6 weeks in 2008. She now lives in Adelaide with her husband, Quentin, and her daughter.

Andrea was born in southern Brazil and moved around as a child. She started learning English at seven years old by teaching herself and learning from the children whose first language was English. She is now fluent in Portuguese, English and French.

In 2008 Andrea was one of five people selected out of six hundred applicants from Brazil for the GSE between Rotary Districts 9500 and 4440. The group was in Australia for six weeks in April and May 2008. Whilst in Australia they stayed with the Rotary Clubs of Prospect, North Adelaide, Salisbury and Adelaide City and visited country Rotary clubs including Roxby Downs, Peterborough, Two Wells and Tanunda.

Back in Brazil Andrea represented Rotary and the GSE speaking in seven states about her experiences in Australia and developed free workshops to show a bit of Australia to Brazilians.

Andrea moved to Australia and volunteered in various schools until her qualifications were formally recognised. She started working at Norwood Morialta High School in 2014.

In 2013 Andrea opened the Brazilian Ethnic School of South Australia with the unconditional support of her husband and daughter. There are now forty-five students.

Sergeant Lyn handed out fines.

P Robin closed Playford’s meeting.
